

May 3, 2019

Quality Control Technician Internship

- Company Name: Zmodo - EP Technology Corporation
- Industry: Smart Home
- Position Location: Champaign, IL
- Position Title: Quality Control Technician
- Primary Duty: Implement QC Procedures
- Travel: None
- Schedule: Mon.-Fri. 8 AM to 5 PM
- Pay: $12.00 / hour
- Training Provided

EP Technology Corporation is the sole distribution and logistics center in the Western Hemisphere for Zmodo, an internationally renowned developer of video security systems and smart home technology. The Quality Control Internship is highly linked to the CS&T and other similar program.

Duties include:

- The internship includes testing, upgrading, troubleshooting, inspecting, grading, and sorting our line of smart home / Internet of Things (IoT) products from leading brands such as Zmodo and meShare.
- It involves basic electronics hardware and software (firmware) troubleshooting of devices, which is suitable for students interested in Computer Science area.
- The intern will also learn network troubleshooting and monitoring while servicing the products.
- Implement quality control practices to ensure the devices, packaging, labels and other aspects of the product are ready for shipping.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated and significant experience in implementing QC processes
- Intermediate computer skills – ability to effectively use MS Office suite, internet tools, etc. to record data and run proprietary updating software
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong reading comprehension skills
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong people skills – need to be able to maintain QC process while still maintaining the respect of the shipping department

Interested candidates should submit a resume and an optional cover letter detailing why they feel they may be a good fit for this opportunity. Email Wayne at changshi@eptco.com.