ROBERT OWEN CARR
Founder and CEO, Give Something Back

Robert Owen Carr is a prominent American business figure, an author, and a leading education philanthropist. He was named to a key White House post on the National Infrastructure Advisory Council last year by President Barack Obama.

Mr. Carr founded a small startup in 1997 that grew to a Fortune 1000 company with more than 4,600 employees. The company was sold last year for $4.3 billion. He recently founded another company, Beyond.

Over his career, he has earned widespread praise in the national media for his business acumen, his outspoken criticism of dishonest practices in the financial industry, and his loyalty and generosity to employees at every level.

Today, Mr. Carr heads Give Something Back, an organization that has provided mentoring and college scholarships to students facing economic adversity. He created the program as a gesture of gratitude for a scholarship he received as a senior in high school in his native Lockport, Illinois, in 1963.

He described growing up in a household with more troubles than money in his first book, Through the Fires: an American Story of Turbulence, Business Triumph and Giving Back. In his recently released book, Working Class to College: The Promise and Peril Facing Blue-Collar America, Mr. Carr lauds community colleges as a key resource in making higher education affordable. Both books are distributed by the University of Illinois Press. He is currently working on a book about the challenges facing students with an incarcerated parent.

Mr. Carr earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics and a master's degree in computer science at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. His first job after completing his education was at Parkland College, as director of the computer center and president of the faculty.

Distinguished Alumnus Award Recipient

Donor Relations Consultant, Community Blood Services of Illinois

Ashley Morgan is a native of the Champaign-Urbana area. She earned her Associate of Arts in Mass Communication from Parkland College in 2007 and her Bachelor of Science in Media Studies from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 2010.

Ms. Morgan began her career in media as a morning radio show host at Stevie Jay Broadcasting. Today, she is employed at Community Blood Services of Illinois, where she serves as a donor relations consultant. She is also earning her MBA from the University of Illinois.

Ms. Morgan is highly engaged in the Champaign-Urbana community, spending much of her time volunteering for such organizations as the Champaign County Humane Society, the American Heart Association, and the Junior League of Champaign-Urbana, where she serves as vice president of communications. She also serves on the board of directors for Girls Go for It, a new nonprofit in Champaign aiming to empower fifth-grade girls in the area's schools by helping them build confidence, develop leadership skills, and explore careers.
