Commencement Speaker

COLONEL (RET.) CRAIG OSBORNE, USA
Executive Officer to the University President
National Defense University

With a distinguished military career and an equally impressive educational résumé, Col. Craig Osborne retired from active duty in the United States Army in 2019. His 30 years of service included five combat deployments and participation in Operations Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Joint Guard, Enduring Freedom, and Iraqi Freedom. The Decatur, Illinois, native currently serves as chief of staff for the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), where he helps lead a renowned school of international affairs with campuses in Washington, DC, Nanjing, China, and Bologna, Italy.

In 1989, Col. Osborne earned a Bachelor of Science in History from Illinois State University along with a commission through the ROTC program as an Army infantry officer. He went on to serve in numerous command and staff positions throughout the following Army Divisions: the 1st Infantry, 1st Armor, 4th Infantry, 82nd Airborne, and 1st Army. He served at the headquarters of the Allied Land Forces Southeastern Europe in Izmir, Turkey, on the Joint Staff in Washington, DC, as chief of staff for a Combined, Joint, and Interagency Task Force in Kabul, Afghanistan, as chief of future operations for the US European Command in Stuttgart, Germany, and as chief of staff at the National Defense University in Washington, DC.

Among his many awards and decorations, Col. Osborne has twice been presented the Defense Superior Service Medal by the Secretary of Defense as well as the Legion of Merit, five Bronze Star Medals for actions in Afghanistan and Iraq, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, three Meritorious Service Medals, the Combat Infantryman's Badge with Star, the Senior Parachutist's Badge, the Pathfinder Badge, and the Ranger Tab. He has also received four military awards from the German Government and is a recipient of the General Douglas MacArthur Leadership Award for the Army.

In addition to his bachelor's degree, Col. Osborne's earned an MS in Adult, Occupational, and Continuing Education from Kansas State University, an MMAS in Military Planning and Operational Design from the US Army Command and General Staff College, an MS in National Security Strategy from the National War College, a Graduate Certificate in Advanced International Affairs from the Bush School of Government at Texas A&M University, and a Certificate in Business from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Dedication

COL. OSBORNE IS DEDICATING TONIGHT'S ADDRESS TO
LT. COL. (RET.) NORMAN EMERY

Lieutenant Colonel (Ret.) Norman Emery, United States Army, is a decorated veteran of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He graduated from Illinois State University in December 1989 with a BA in Russian Studies. He was commissioned in May 1989, completing the ISU ROTC program. Lt. Col. Emery served in the Field Artillery, Military Intelligence, and Information Operations (IO) branches with duty at Schweinfurt, Germany, Fort Campbell, Kentucky, Zagreb, Croatia, Monterey, California, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and Fort Belvoir, Virginia. He also served 39 months in both Iraq and Afghanistan. He earned an MS in Defense

Analysis from Naval Postgraduate School, completing his joint thesis on “Terrorist Use of Information Operations.” His badges and awards include Airborne, Air Assault, Bronze Star, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Iraq and Afghanistan Campaign Medals, and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.

In his retirement years, Lt. Col. Emery has explored a variety of interests and professions including contracting as an information operations subject matter expert, landscaping, home inspection, substitute teaching, and corrections officer for the DeWitt County Sheriff's Office. He is dedicated to investing in his community and has done so by serving on the board of directors for the DeWitt County Habitat for Humanity and the Vault Youth Center. Since his diagnosis with glioblastoma brain cancer, he has contributed to the Brain Tumor Nature Walk and Fundraiser for the National Brain Tumor Association. He is an active member of First Christian Church in Clinton and loves playing the bass guitar in the worship band.

Lt. Col. Emery is husband to Rachel and father to Hannah, Michaela, Jason, Sarah, Levi, and Naomi. While he takes great pride in his service to his country during his 24-year military career, Lt. Col. Emery places an even higher value on his personal relationships and service to others. Above all, Lt. Col. Emery is a man devoted to living his Christian faith, to loving his family and his friends, and to seizing opportunities to make a positive difference in the world.

Faculty Address

AMY MYERS

Professor, Economics, Parkland College

Amy Myers earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in economics from Eastern Illinois University, where she served as faculty for 16 years. She began teaching part-time at Parkland College in 1992, then joined full-time in 1999. Her primary and favorite role has been that of an economics teacher, devoting herself to engaging students in learning and meeting student needs. During her time at Parkland, she has served as department chair for Social Sciences and Human Services; as program director and coordinator for Economics; and on many department and college-wide committees. In 2015, Professor Myers was awarded the Parkland Teaching Excellence Award in recognition of her commitment to her students.

Professor Myers will retire in August 2020. The parent of two adult daughters and four grandchildren, she lives with Michael, her husband of 36 years, in Champaign. She is looking forward to spending more time with her grandchildren, working on her garden, and devoting herself to the music ministry of her church. She and her family are grateful to Parkland College for providing the environment that has made it possible to have a fulfilling and rewarding career.

Trustee Greetings

BIANCA T. GREEN

Chair, Parkland College Board of Trustees

Bianca Green is general counsel for the State Universities Retirement System of Illinois, where she is responsible for providing legal advice and guidance for the administration of a $19 billion public pension fund. Prior to this, Mrs. Green served as the president of Illinois Mediation Services, Inc., a mediation company she founded in response to the growing need for independent mediation services in Illinois. She began her business after 16 years as a civil litigation partner with the Champaign law firm Thomas, Mamer & Haughey. She has served as a member of the Parkland College Board of Trustees since 2015. She has also served as a board member for the Cunningham Children's Home, CASA, the Executive Club of Champaign County, and the Champaign County Bar Association.

Mrs. Green and her husband Jim reside in Champaign, Illinois, with their daughters, Stella and Maris.

President Remarks

THOMAS R. RAMAGE, ED.D.

President, Parkland College

Thomas R. Ramage joined Parkland College in July 1998 as chair of the Distance and Virtual Learning department, which was responsible for developing and administering Parkland's online course delivery systems and policies.

In June 2007, Dr. Ramage began serving as interim president of Parkland College. The Board of Trustees of Community College District 505 appointed him as Parkland's fifth president in January 2008. He serves as the chief executive officer of Parkland College and is responsible to the trustees to implement the philosophy, goals, and policies of Parkland College, which has over 730 employees serving approximately 11,000 students each semester.

He received his Master of Arts in Education and Human Development with a specialization in Educational Technology Leadership from The George Washington University in 1998 and his Doctorate in Education with a specialization in Instructional Technology and Distance Education from Nova Southeastern University. His research focused on cost-efficiency and return on investment of online programs.

Dr. Ramage and wife Michelle, superintendent of Rantoul City Schools, District #137, have a son, Colin, and a daughter-in-law, Megan.
