

PARKLAND COLLEGE SURGICAL TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- I. Utilize professional and effective communication with members of the surgical team with increasing engagement, increasing intuition, and increasing interpretation of verbal and visual cues.
  - II. Demonstrate entry-level surgical judgment following established procedures relying on previous learned information and experience responding with increased speed and anticipation while staying calm and focused.
  - III. Demonstrate a surgical conscience by applying the principles of aseptic technique to establish and maintain a sterile field.
  - IV. Exhibit an understanding of human physiology and surgical anatomy in the perioperative role of the surgical technologist applying medical terminology fluently.
  - V. Acquire an understanding of the legal, moral, and ethical concerns related to the surgical patient and surgical team during the perioperative phase of care.
  - VI. Display safe and professional surgical care that reflects the values and ethics of the program and the profession and considers the dignity and biopsychosocial needs of the patient.
  - VII. Evaluate and utilize the principles and concepts of pharmacology in the performance of the role of the surgical technologist.
  - VIII. Demonstrate the skills and abilities to perform as a competent entry level surgical technologist.
- 