ICISP Parkland College Study Abroad
Summer 2018 Liaison, Dijon, France
Study Abroad Information and Application

Bonjour! Vive la France! The Illinois Consortium for International Studies and Programs and Parkland College are pleased to provide a professional development opportunity for full time faculty, administrators, and or professional support staff who are members of ICISP-member institutions. The Liaison position at The International Center for French Studies (CIEF) which is part of the University of Bourgogne, in Dijon, France is designed to provide the opportunity to experience first-hand living, and interacting with students and colleagues in an international setting. This exciting opportunity is available for four weeks during the summer usually the month of July. Individuals interested in applying should review all program materials provided to students.

General Information

Dijon, France, located at the crossroads of Europe, is a lively, progressive university city of over 250,000 inhabitants. Capitol of gastronomy and gateway to the prestigious vineyards of Burgundy, Dijon is exceptionally rich in history and art. Heir to the splendors of the glorious court of the Dukes of Burgundy, Dijon boasts numerous monuments, museums, and architectural jewels including churches, cathedrals, and private residences dating from the Middle Ages.

The ICISP Liaison selected for this appointment will be provided a private dormitory room with double bed, full bathroom, and kitchenette (stovetop, refrigerator, and small kitchen table) in the University of Bourgogne’s international residence hall (RIE). Students will live in the same residence hall, and daily contact in between students and the Liaison during the course of daily activities is frequent. Because of the nature of the accommodations, the ICISP Liaison may bring a spouse/partner, but the RIE cannot provide housing for children of the liaison. Applicants to the Liaison position at the CIEF at the University of Bourgogne should strongly consider the living arrangements prior to submitting an application.

Please note that a minimum number of ICISP students must attend the CIEF at the University of Bourgogne for a Liaison to participate in the program; the program has historically met the required number of participants. The Liaison selected for the summer program will be notified by March 15 if this minimum requirement has been met. Before applying, please confirm that this condition is an acceptable one for you and your college.

Liaison Qualifications

- ICISP full time employee must be fully supported by home college, as follows: Release time, if necessary, to participate in recruitment activities and orientation at Parkland College, coverage for liability; salary as determined by home institution.
• Experience with leading groups, domestically or abroad
• Good interpersonal relations with students and colleagues
• Flexibility and ability to adapt to different cultural settings
• Fluency in French is desirable but not required.

Liaison Responsibilities

The Liaison assigned to this program will be expected to fulfill the following responsibilities:

• Assist with recruiting participants to program.
• Oversee and provide leadership for the program and student service needs of students in France.
• Assist ICISP students with the adjustment to living in a different culture.
• Serve as chaperone for Paris and Provence trips.
• Monitor students’ independent travel.
• Perform administrative duties of the program as needed.
• Provide advisement to students as needed.
• Hold on-campus office hours.
• Through the appropriate officers of the CIEF and RIE, assist in solving problems which arise.
• Provide all appropriate information and communicate regularly with the program coordinator and ICISP.
• Assist with planning student orientation session.
• Attend the student orientation prior to the trip (usually held on Saturday in late May or early June).
• Communicate regularly with the ICISP France study abroad program coordinator.

One of the primary responsibilities of the Liaison is to assist the ICISP students attending the study abroad program in Dijon. As such, the Liaison is required to restrict personal travel to those times when classes and/or cultural excursions are not in session. The Liaison should not commit to teaching any on-line courses at their home institution while assigned to the Dijon study abroad program. The Liaison assigned to the Dijon study abroad program will be required to sign an agreement verifying that the above responsibilities are understood and agreed upon.

Compensation

The Liaison will agree to the following compensation arrangements:

• Salary: Paid by home college, as determined by home institution policies.
• Housing: The CIEF provides housing free of charge to the Liaison and a partner/spouse at the RIE from the start of term to the official end of term.
- Airfare and transportation to host institution: Roundtrip economy international airfare is paid by Parkland College up to $1200 USD. Transportation to/from the U.S. departure airport is the responsibility of the Liaison.
- Passport: Paid by Liaison
- Meal stipend and or Extra Allowance: Optional by home college.
- Tuition for French course (optional): Paid by Liaison or home college.
