

Character Breakdown

- Due to mature content, actors must be 18 years old by the first rehearsal. We will consider 16–17-year-olds for ensemble roles (with parental consent.)
- Genders listed below are how the characters identify on stage; however, actors of all genders are welcome to audition for the roles they feel most comfortable playing on stage.
- Age ranges are suggested stage age. We will consider actors outside the age range if they can appear as the appropriate character age range (with or without make-up/hair)
- Unless otherwise stated, people of all races, ethnicities, and identities are welcomed and encouraged to audition for all roles.

- Guitar skills are highly preferred. The actor will either need to play acoustic guitar unaccompanied by orchestra or should be willing to get familiar with holding and believably fake playing the guitar. Please list any guitar or related instrument skills you know on your audition form. Actors auditioning for the role of Robbie who have guitar skills are encouraged (but not required) to bring and play their guitar and choose “Somebody Kill Me” or “Grow Old with You” for your audition song. Sheet music can be found at the links.
